

WILLIMANTIC

NORWICH BULLETIN
Willimantic Office
24 Church Street Telephone 1062

Labor Day in this city was celebrated with much enthusiasm. The two principal events which were to be the day's feature of entertainment for those who stayed at home during the holiday were the baseball game between the local team and the visiting team from the Connecticut State League, which was held at the Willimantic baseball park, and the parade which was held in the afternoon. The parade was a very successful one, and the baseball game was also a success. The local team won the game by a score of 4 to 1.

Miss Philomena Marchant, 94, the oldest resident of this city, died Monday morning at the home of Philip H. Hill at the Willimantic. She was born in East Hampton, March 19, 1828, the daughter of Nathaniel and Abigail Smith Marchant.

Local Palmer, an employee of the city department is suffering from a severe cold and cough. He was taken to the hospital on Monday morning. The doctor has ordered him to stay in bed for a few days.

The case of Albert Reed, of Windham, charged with non-support, was continued until Saturday morning. The case of Dr. Burke Dow, who answered to the same charge, was continued for two weeks.

The case of Helen J. Danahy, administratrix of the estate of Patrick J. Danahy, versus Guy Demarco is returnable before Judge A. J. Jenkins on September 27. The damage claimed by Mrs. Danahy are $100 for services rendered the defendant by the deceased and a writ of attachment for $200 has been served by Deputy Sheriff A. J. Green on the defendant's truck touring car for that amount.

The summary process in the case of Lydia A. Card versus Ida Timmins, for the possession of a tenement occupied by the latter, is returnable September 12, and the papers have been served by Deputy Sheriff A. J. Green. The house was recently sold by Lydia A. Card to the William Army.

Dr. William K. Bath secured an accident recently when he ran his car into a motorcycle. Mr. Bath was coming down Main street and he put out his hand as a stop sign, intending to back to the curb. A motorcycle who was also coming down Main street did not see his hand until he was near the car and stopped only about six feet in the rear. Mr. Bath proceeded to back up and not hearing the warning shouts of the motorcycle driver, he ran into the vehicle and broke the front wheel and headlight. The rider jumped to safety. The two men reached an agreement between themselves and the matter was not reported to the police.

A Cadillac roadster owned and driven by Joseph St. Onge, crashed into a tree on Oak street but escaped with slight damage. Mr. St. Onge turned out of Prospect street, drove the steep part of Oak and apparently the brakes refused to hold and the car ran on the sidewalk and into a tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo P. Litchfield have returned from a vacation spent in Boston.

Miss Sarah K. Keever, Red Cross public health nurse, has returned from New Britain where she spent her vacation. Miss Barbara Elliott is entertaining Mrs. Ann Backus, daughter of Dr. Mary Backus, of Hartford.

The families of James W. Hillhouse, and Kenneth N. Hillhouse spent the week end at the home of Mrs. H. H. Beale of Glastonbury are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Helen Avery spent the holidays at the Wigwam, Pleasant View.

Miss Fannie Bishop has returned to North Adams where she teaches in the Normal school.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Bath secured an accident recently when he ran his car into a motorcycle. Mr. Bath was coming down Main street and he put out his hand as a stop sign, intending to back to the curb. A motorcycle who was also coming down Main street did not see his hand until he was near the car and stopped only about six feet in the rear. Mr. Bath proceeded to back up and not hearing the warning shouts of the motorcycle driver, he ran into the vehicle and broke the front wheel and headlight. The rider jumped to safety. The two men reached an agreement between themselves and the matter was not reported to the police.

A Cadillac roadster owned and driven by Joseph St. Onge, crashed into a tree on Oak street but escaped with slight damage. Mr. St. Onge turned out of Prospect street, drove the steep part of Oak and apparently the brakes refused to hold and the car ran on the sidewalk and into a tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo P. Litchfield have returned from a vacation spent in Boston.

Miss Sarah K. Keever, Red Cross public health nurse, has returned from New Britain where she spent her vacation. Miss Barbara Elliott is entertaining Mrs. Ann Backus, daughter of Dr. Mary Backus, of Hartford.

The families of James W. Hillhouse, and Kenneth N. Hillhouse spent the week end at the home of Mrs. H. H. Beale of Glastonbury are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Helen Avery spent the holidays at the Wigwam, Pleasant View.

Miss Fannie Bishop has returned to North Adams where she teaches in the Normal school.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Bath secured an accident recently when he ran his car into a motorcycle. Mr. Bath was coming down Main street and he put out his hand as a stop sign, intending to back to the curb. A motorcycle who was also coming down Main street did not see his hand until he was near the car and stopped only about six feet in the rear. Mr. Bath proceeded to back up and not hearing the warning shouts of the motorcycle driver, he ran into the vehicle and broke the front wheel and headlight. The rider jumped to safety. The two men reached an agreement between themselves and the matter was not reported to the police.

A Cadillac roadster owned and driven by Joseph St. Onge, crashed into a tree on Oak street but escaped with slight damage. Mr. St. Onge turned out of Prospect street, drove the steep part of Oak and apparently the brakes refused to hold and the car ran on the sidewalk and into a tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo P. Litchfield have returned from a vacation spent in Boston.

Miss Sarah K. Keever, Red Cross public health nurse, has returned from New Britain where she spent her vacation. Miss Barbara Elliott is entertaining Mrs. Ann Backus, daughter of Dr. Mary Backus, of Hartford.

The families of James W. Hillhouse, and Kenneth N. Hillhouse spent the week end at the home of Mrs. H. H. Beale of Glastonbury are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Helen Avery spent the holidays at the Wigwam, Pleasant View.

Miss Fannie Bishop has returned to North Adams where she teaches in the Normal school.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Bath secured an accident recently when he ran his car into a motorcycle. Mr. Bath was coming down Main street and he put out his hand as a stop sign, intending to back to the curb. A motorcycle who was also coming down Main street did not see his hand until he was near the car and stopped only about six feet in the rear. Mr. Bath proceeded to back up and not hearing the warning shouts of the motorcycle driver, he ran into the vehicle and broke the front wheel and headlight. The rider jumped to safety. The two men reached an agreement between themselves and the matter was not reported to the police.

A Cadillac roadster owned and driven by Joseph St. Onge, crashed into a tree on Oak street but escaped with slight damage. Mr. St. Onge turned out of Prospect street, drove the steep part of Oak and apparently the brakes refused to hold and the car ran on the sidewalk and into a tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo P. Litchfield have returned from a vacation spent in Boston.

Miss Sarah K. Keever, Red Cross public health nurse, has returned from New Britain where she spent her vacation. Miss Barbara Elliott is entertaining Mrs. Ann Backus, daughter of Dr. Mary Backus, of Hartford.

The families of James W. Hillhouse, and Kenneth N. Hillhouse spent the week end at the home of Mrs. H. H. Beale of Glastonbury are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Bath secured an accident recently when he ran his car into a motorcycle. Mr. Bath was coming down Main street and he put out his hand as a stop sign, intending to back to the curb. A motorcycle who was also coming down Main street did not see his hand until he was near the car and stopped only about six feet in the rear. Mr. Bath proceeded to back up and not hearing the warning shouts of the motorcycle driver, he ran into the vehicle and broke the front wheel and headlight. The rider jumped to safety. The two men reached an agreement between themselves and the matter was not reported to the police.

A Cadillac roadster owned and driven by Joseph St. Onge, crashed into a tree on Oak street but escaped with slight damage. Mr. St. Onge turned out of Prospect street, drove the steep part of Oak and apparently the brakes refused to hold and the car ran on the sidewalk and into a tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo P. Litchfield have returned from a vacation spent in Boston.

Miss Sarah K. Keever, Red Cross public health nurse, has returned from New Britain where she spent her vacation. Miss Barbara Elliott is entertaining Mrs. Ann Backus, daughter of Dr. Mary Backus, of Hartford.

The families of James W. Hillhouse, and Kenneth N. Hillhouse spent the week end at the home of Mrs. H. H. Beale of Glastonbury are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Helen Avery spent the holidays at the Wigwam, Pleasant View.

Miss Fannie Bishop has returned to North Adams where she teaches in the Normal school.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Bath secured an accident recently when he ran his car into a motorcycle. Mr. Bath was coming down Main street and he put out his hand as a stop sign, intending to back to the curb. A motorcycle who was also coming down Main street did not see his hand until he was near the car and stopped only about six feet in the rear. Mr. Bath proceeded to back up and not hearing the warning shouts of the motorcycle driver, he ran into the vehicle and broke the front wheel and headlight. The rider jumped to safety. The two men reached an agreement between themselves and the matter was not reported to the police.

A Cadillac roadster owned and driven by Joseph St. Onge, crashed into a tree on Oak street but escaped with slight damage. Mr. St. Onge turned out of Prospect street, drove the steep part of Oak and apparently the brakes refused to hold and the car ran on the sidewalk and into a tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo P. Litchfield have returned from a vacation spent in Boston.

Miss Sarah K. Keever, Red Cross public health nurse, has returned from New Britain where she spent her vacation. Miss Barbara Elliott is entertaining Mrs. Ann Backus, daughter of Dr. Mary Backus, of Hartford.

The families of James W. Hillhouse, and Kenneth N. Hillhouse spent the week end at the home of Mrs. H. H. Beale of Glastonbury are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Helen Avery spent the holidays at the Wigwam, Pleasant View.

Miss Fannie Bishop has returned to North Adams where she teaches in the Normal school.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Bath secured an accident recently when he ran his car into a motorcycle. Mr. Bath was coming down Main street and he put out his hand as a stop sign, intending to back to the curb. A motorcycle who was also coming down Main street did not see his hand until he was near the car and stopped only about six feet in the rear. Mr. Bath proceeded to back up and not hearing the warning shouts of the motorcycle driver, he ran into the vehicle and broke the front wheel and headlight. The rider jumped to safety. The two men reached an agreement between themselves and the matter was not reported to the police.

A Cadillac roadster owned and driven by Joseph St. Onge, crashed into a tree on Oak street but escaped with slight damage. Mr. St. Onge turned out of Prospect street, drove the steep part of Oak and apparently the brakes refused to hold and the car ran on the sidewalk and into a tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo P. Litchfield have returned from a vacation spent in Boston.

Miss Sarah K. Keever, Red Cross public health nurse, has returned from New Britain where she spent her vacation. Miss Barbara Elliott is entertaining Mrs. Ann Backus, daughter of Dr. Mary Backus, of Hartford.

The families of James W. Hillhouse, and Kenneth N. Hillhouse spent the week end at the home of Mrs. H. H. Beale of Glastonbury are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Branch.

WESTERLY

NORWICH BULLETIN
Westery Office
24 Church Street Telephone 1062

Monday morning at 9 o'clock the wedding of Miss Emma Theresa Gripling and Robert La. Priore, of Westery took place at the church of the Immaculate Conception, a large number of relatives and friends attending. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. F. Henry Brown. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white satin and carried a bouquet of white and red roses. She wore a veil of real lace, caught up with orange blossoms. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword. The ceremony was a simple one, and the wedding party consisted of the bride, groom, best man, and maid of honor. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, and a large number of guests were present. The wedding party was a very successful one, and the bride and groom were very happy.

The school board held a meeting Friday, the 25th, and voted to engage Mrs. Elizabeth Cummins as teacher at the Pine street school, and Miss Marion Joseph as teacher at the Chestnut Hill school. The teachers at the other schools will be the same as during the past year.

An additional amount of $7 has been received for the benefit of the Salvation Army in Westery, making $82, to be paid to the Westery branch of the organization.

Mrs. G. R. Verrington and son Lester attended the fair and supper of the Mohican Indian tribe held at their place at Mohogah during the past week, for the support of their church. She enjoyed the trip greatly and brought home samples of the most delicious food made by the Indian cooks.

Mrs. John Grossman of East Hartford, her daughter, Mrs. Robert and her children, also Miss Violet French, who have been spending a vacation at the cottage of Fred H. Avery on the green, returned Saturday.

Among the many persons who spent the week-end and Labor Day in town are W. P. Bannister of Brooklyn, N. Y., with his family at the lake, Dorothy Burro and Lenore Little with their grandmother, Mrs. Willard Clarke on the green, Hubert Little with his family, and Miss Alice Little, who is spending a vacation at the lake.

Many of the summer residents at the lake returned to their homes on Saturday. E. Brown states that practically all the occupants of his cottages are going now, but that others are expected who will remain during the fall. Miss Child Hawkins, librarian of Stevens Institute, Hoboken, N. J., who has just returned from a two months' vacation in Europe, was in town over Labor Day visiting relatives and friends.

Randall Porter returned Saturday from a two weeks' outing, camping on the shore at Westery, N. Y., and including a trip to New York.

The closing dance of the season under the management of a party of young people, calling themselves the "man dodgers" was held Saturday evening. The hall was handsomely decorated and brilliantly lighted. Nearly five persons were in attendance, more than could be accommodated comfortably on the floor at one time. The dances during the season, have generally been a success, although some of the evenings have been stormy.

Several persons from town attended the funeral services in Westery, Sunday afternoon. The celebration of the Lord's supper was observed in church Sunday morning. Many visitors over the holidays being present. The sermon was from the text Rev. 1:6, "Unto Him that loved us from our sins be glory for ever."

The Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening was led by Miss Gertrude Gates, the subject being Better Giving. The pulpit organ and four were handsomely decorated and brilliantly lighted. Nearly five persons were in attendance, more than could be accommodated comfortably on the floor at one time. The dances during the season, have generally been a success, although some of the evenings have been stormy.

Several persons from town attended the funeral services in Westery, Sunday afternoon. The celebration of the Lord's supper was observed in church Sunday morning. Many visitors over the holidays being present. The sermon was from the text Rev. 1:6, "Unto Him that loved us from our sins be glory for ever."

The Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening was led by Miss Gertrude Gates, the subject being Better Giving. The pulpit organ and four were handsomely decorated and brilliantly lighted. Nearly five persons were in attendance, more than could be accommodated comfortably on the floor at one time. The dances during the season, have generally been a success, although some of the evenings have been stormy.

Several persons from town attended the funeral services in Westery, Sunday afternoon. The celebration of the Lord's supper was observed in church Sunday morning. Many visitors over the holidays being present. The sermon was from the text Rev. 1:6, "Unto Him that loved us from our sins be glory for ever."

The Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening was led by Miss Gertrude Gates, the subject being Better Giving. The pulpit organ and four were handsomely decorated and brilliantly lighted. Nearly five persons were in attendance, more than could be accommodated comfortably on the floor at one time. The dances during the season, have generally been a success, although some of the evenings have been stormy.

YONG-GONA Aids Doing Housework

Splendid Results of GOLDINE Tonic and Nerve in the Home Sweep Fame of Great Tropical Yong-Gona Remedy Across Country

No matter what may be the cause of a general breakdown, lack of vitality, "nerves," indigestion, poor blood, sleeplessness and fear follow; the heart weakens, the brain loses its power, the body is a burden. GOLDINE Tonic and Nerve is then more valuable than any other known treatment. For summer heat debility, it has no equal - better than a vacation.

"I could hardly do my housework. I was so nervous and weak," says Mrs. Cyril Hulse, West Concord, "Four years ago I had a nervous breakdown from influenza. I had catarrh, larynx, coughed and spit blood. Before taking Goldine Tonic and Nerve, I had such a dull feeling and was so dizzy I thought I was going crazy. When I

At the Yong-Gona Ceremony
Elaborate ceremony attends bringing Yong-Gona to the aid of the afflicted. The heralds announce, "The Yong-Gona is here." The roots are strained through hygienic bark fibers. Yong-Gona song chanted and Yong-Gona used at once by chiefs in order of rank. The famous medicinal tonic is contained in GOLDINE.

GOLDINE Remedies are sold in Norwich by Geo. D. Engler and Lee & Chas. Co., 241 E. Main St., and in Westery by A. T. Van Clave; Groton by C. S. Davis; Jewett City by J. P. Gorman; Bank by W. H. Hill, Taffville by Geo. Thompson.

The Beneficial Loan Society
was established to enable worthy persons to borrow money, in sums not exceeding $300, for all legitimate purposes, at fair and lawful rates, upon an equitable, self-respecting basis. Only security necessary is your furniture used in housekeeping, or note signed by one responsible person. Service is quick, courteous, private, and completely satisfactory. Let us hear from you today if you demand the best in Small Loan Service. Phone 1-6-6-4.

NEW LONDON, CONN.
The sound of the 35 horsepower steam engine at the gravel pit reminds one of a heavy freight train pulling up a long grade.

Miss Lena Fuller of Norwich was a recent guest of friends here.

Charles Berletsky recently sold his place, Hillside farm, to New York purchasers, who have taken possession. Mr. Berletsky and family moved Friday to Seymour.

James R. Case of Storrs college was here Saturday.

These quiet, dreamy days, with the sign of goldenrod, the scent of wild grapes, the meadows rich with corn, and katydids calling at early evening, tell of the progress of September.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Humphrey have returned from their vacation. Sunday morning at the church the communion service was observed. The Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening was led by Miss Gertrude Gates, the subject being Better Giving.

Thursday evening Mr. Humphrey was in Pachaug to give an illustrated lecture on the community about the Mountain Whites in North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Roberts of Monticello, N. J., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Humphrey. Mr. Roberts was maid of honor last year at the Goldard-Lovell wedding at the church here.

Herbert Smith is driving a new car. Carlton Lovell has also purchased a car lately.

A number from this vicinity attended camp meeting at Willimantic Sunday. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Frink and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Frink and Mr. and Mrs. Hale Bennett and H. B. Brown and family.

Curtis Adams of Fishburg was a recent guest of Mrs. Wright.

Herbert Williams returned Friday from a vacation trip to Westbrook and other places.

YONG-GONA Aids Doing Housework

Splendid Results of GOLDINE Tonic and Nerve in the Home Sweep Fame of Great Tropical Yong-Gona Remedy Across Country

No matter what may be the cause of a general breakdown, lack of vitality, "nerves," indigestion, poor blood, sleeplessness and fear follow; the heart weakens, the brain loses its power, the body is a burden. GOLDINE Tonic and Nerve is then more valuable than any other known treatment. For summer heat debility, it has no equal - better than a vacation.

"I could hardly do my housework. I was so nervous and weak," says Mrs. Cyril Hulse, West Concord, "Four years ago I had a nervous breakdown from influenza. I had catarrh, larynx, coughed and spit blood. Before taking Goldine Tonic and Nerve, I had such a dull feeling and was so dizzy I thought I was going crazy. When I

At the Yong-Gona Ceremony
Elaborate ceremony attends bringing Yong-Gona to the aid of the afflicted. The heralds announce, "The Yong-Gona is here." The roots are strained through hygienic bark fibers. Yong-Gona song chanted and Yong-Gona used at once by chiefs in order of rank. The famous medicinal tonic is contained in GOLDINE.

GOLDINE Remedies are sold in Norwich by Geo. D. Engler and Lee & Chas. Co., 241 E. Main St., and in Westery by A. T. Van Clave; Groton by C. S. Davis; Jewett City by J. P. Gorman; Bank by W. H. Hill, Taffville by Geo. Thompson.

The Beneficial Loan Society
was established to enable worthy persons to borrow money, in sums not exceeding $300, for all legitimate purposes, at fair and lawful rates, upon an equitable, self-respecting basis. Only security necessary is your furniture used in housekeeping, or note signed by one responsible person. Service is quick, courteous, private, and completely satisfactory. Let us hear from you today if you demand the best in Small Loan Service. Phone 1-6-6-4.

NEW LONDON, CONN.
The sound of the 35 horsepower steam engine at the gravel pit reminds one of a heavy freight train pulling up a long grade.

Miss Lena Fuller of Norwich was a recent guest of friends here.

Charles Berletsky recently sold his place, Hillside farm, to New York purchasers, who have taken possession. Mr. Berletsky and family moved Friday to Seymour.

James R. Case of Storrs college was here Saturday.

These quiet, dreamy days, with the sign of goldenrod, the scent of wild grapes, the meadows rich with corn, and katydids calling at early evening, tell of the progress of September.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Humphrey have returned from their vacation. Sunday morning at the church the communion service was observed. The Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening was led by Miss Gertrude Gates, the subject being Better Giving.

Thursday evening Mr. Humphrey was in Pachaug to give an illustrated lecture on the community about the Mountain Whites in North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Roberts of Monticello, N. J., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Humphrey. Mr. Roberts was maid of honor last year at the Goldard-Lovell wedding at the church here.

Herbert Smith is driving a new car. Carlton Lovell has also purchased a car lately.

A number from this vicinity attended camp meeting at Willimantic Sunday. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Frink and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Frink and Mr. and Mrs. Hale Bennett and H. B. Brown and family.

Curtis Adams of Fishburg was a recent guest of Mrs. Wright.

Herbert Williams returned Friday from a vacation trip to Westbrook and other places.

YONG-GONA Aids Doing Housework

Splendid Results of GOLDINE Tonic and Nerve in the Home Sweep Fame of Great Tropical Yong-Gona Remedy Across Country

No matter what may be the cause of a general breakdown, lack of vitality, "nerves," indigestion, poor blood, sleeplessness and fear follow; the heart weakens, the brain loses its power, the body is a burden. GOLDINE Tonic and Nerve is then more valuable than any other known treatment. For summer heat debility, it has no equal - better than a vacation.

"I could hardly do my housework. I was so nervous and weak," says Mrs. Cyril Hulse, West Concord, "Four years ago I had a nervous breakdown from influenza. I had catarrh, larynx, coughed and spit blood. Before taking Goldine Tonic and Nerve, I had such a dull feeling and was so dizzy I thought I was going crazy. When I

At the Yong-Gona Ceremony
Elaborate ceremony attends bringing Yong-Gona to the aid of the afflicted. The heralds announce, "The Yong-Gona is here." The roots are strained through hygienic bark fibers. Yong-Gona song chanted and Yong-Gona used at once by chiefs in order of rank. The famous medicinal tonic is contained in GOLDINE.

GOLDINE Remedies are sold in Norwich by Geo. D. Engler and Lee & Chas. Co., 241 E. Main St., and in Westery by A. T. Van Clave; Groton by C. S. Davis; Jewett City by J. P. Gorman; Bank by W. H. Hill, Taffville by Geo. Thompson.

The Beneficial Loan Society
was established to enable worthy persons to borrow money, in sums not exceeding $300, for all legitimate purposes, at fair and lawful rates, upon an equitable, self-respecting basis. Only security necessary is your furniture used in housekeeping, or note signed by one responsible person. Service is quick, courteous, private, and completely satisfactory. Let us hear from you today if you demand the best in Small Loan Service. Phone 1-6-6-4.

NEW LONDON, CONN.
The sound of the 35 horsepower steam engine at the gravel pit reminds one of a heavy freight train pulling up a long grade.

Miss Lena Fuller of Norwich was a recent guest of friends here.

Charles Berletsky recently sold his place, Hillside farm, to New York purchasers, who have taken possession. Mr. Berletsky and family moved Friday to Seymour.

James R. Case of Storrs college was here Saturday.

These quiet, dreamy days, with the sign of goldenrod, the scent of wild grapes, the meadows rich with corn, and katydids calling at early evening, tell of the progress of September.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Humphrey have returned from their vacation. Sunday morning at the church the communion service was observed. The Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening was led by Miss Gertrude Gates, the subject being Better Giving.

Thursday evening Mr. Humphrey was in Pachaug to give an illustrated lecture on the community about the Mountain Whites in North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Roberts of Monticello, N. J., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Humphrey. Mr. Roberts was maid of honor last year at the Goldard-Lovell wedding at the church here.

Herbert Smith is driving a new car. Carlton Lovell has also purchased a car lately.

A number from this vicinity attended camp meeting at Willimantic Sunday. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Frink and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Frink and Mr. and Mrs. Hale Bennett and H. B. Brown and family.

Curtis Adams of Fishburg was a recent guest of Mrs. Wright.

Herbert Williams returned Friday from a vacation trip to Westbrook and other places.

YONG-GONA Aids Doing Housework

Splendid Results of GOLDINE Tonic and Nerve in the Home Sweep Fame of Great Tropical Yong-Gona Remedy Across Country

No matter what may be the cause of a general breakdown, lack of vitality, "nerves," indigestion, poor blood, sleeplessness and fear follow; the heart weakens, the brain loses its power, the body is a burden. GOLDINE Tonic and Nerve is then more valuable than any other known treatment. For summer heat debility, it has no equal - better than a vacation.

"I could hardly do my housework. I was so nervous and weak," says Mrs. Cyril Hulse, West Concord, "Four years ago I had a nervous breakdown from influenza. I had catarrh, larynx, coughed and spit blood. Before taking Goldine Tonic and Nerve, I had such a dull feeling and was so dizzy I thought I was going crazy. When I

At the Yong-Gona Ceremony
Elaborate ceremony attends bringing Yong-Gona to the aid of the afflicted. The heralds announce, "The Yong-Gona is here." The roots are strained through hygienic bark fibers. Yong-Gona song chanted and Yong-Gona used at once by chiefs in order of rank. The famous medicinal tonic is contained in GOLDINE.

GOLDINE Remedies are sold in Norwich by Geo. D. Engler and Lee & Chas. Co., 241 E. Main St., and in Westery by A. T. Van Clave; Groton by C. S. Davis; Jewett City by J. P. Gorman; Bank by W. H. Hill, Taffville by Geo. Thompson.

The Beneficial Loan Society
was established to enable worthy persons to borrow money, in sums not exceeding $300, for all legitimate purposes, at fair and lawful rates, upon an equitable, self-respecting basis. Only security necessary is your furniture used in housekeeping, or note signed by one responsible person. Service is quick, courteous, private, and completely satisfactory. Let us hear from you today if you demand the best in Small Loan Service. Phone 1-6-6-4.

NEW LONDON, CONN.
The sound of the 35 horsepower steam engine at the gravel pit reminds one of a heavy freight train pulling up a long grade.

Miss Lena Fuller of Norwich was a recent guest of friends here.

Charles Berletsky recently sold his place, Hillside farm, to New York purchasers, who have taken possession. Mr. Berletsky and family moved Friday to Seymour.

James R. Case of Storrs college was here Saturday.

These quiet, dreamy days, with the sign of goldenrod, the scent of wild grapes, the meadows rich with corn, and katydids calling at early evening, tell of the progress of September.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Humphrey have returned from their vacation. Sunday morning at the church the communion service was observed. The Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening was led by Miss Gertrude Gates, the subject being Better Giving.

Thursday evening Mr. Humphrey was in Pachaug to give an illustrated lecture on the community about the Mountain Whites in North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Roberts of Monticello, N. J., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Humphrey. Mr. Roberts was maid of